Quick-Write: Answer whichever one of these prompts you feel most drawn to. If you want to or have extra time, consider answering both!

- ☐ 1.) Pick one object you own. It can be from your bedroom, another room in the house, or something you keep in your locker/backpack. How does this item relate to you and your identity? What does it represent for you? Why did you pick this item?
- ☐ 2.) What is something about yourself that you wish more people knew about you? Why do you think people do not know this about you? Some examples you can write about: a personality trait, something about your culture, or a skill or talent you have.
